

Revised Schedule – National CHANGE 2013

Wednesday, September 18, 2013

Time	Session	Facilitator(s)	DOCUMENTS
3:00 to 5:00	Check in and Registration	Anjali + Volunteers
6:00	Introductions, Names, Group Norms, House Rules, Q&A	Kelly	contact info
7:30	The power of people Introduction to collective action, the power of collective action, Oxfam's direction and where we as campus groups fit into it – context for the weekend.	Robert Fox (Executive Director) Wyatt (GROW) Maggie (GROW)	strategic plan asset mapping
8:30	CLOSING MOMENT – team building	EAST SUPPORT (Jasmine, Emma L, Maggie)

Thursday, September 19, 2013

Time	Session	Facilitator(s)	STATUS
7:30 - 9:00	Breakfast
9:00	Why women? Dig deeper into Oxfam's focus on women's rights through a simulation activity and debrief. Focus on how gender is linked to poverty. Provide an experience that can be explored and understood, but back it up with research and case study material.	Women's Rights Team (Jasmine, Caitlyn, Jess)	GJFact Sheets Success Stories
10:15	BREAK
10:45	Stepping Stone one – Identifying areas for potential change in women's rights in Canada and around the world. Mapping out and prioritizing issues for change, internationally and in Canada: - what are Oxfam partners speaking about and working on? - what are young women and men across Canada identifying and experiencing as women's rights challenges and successes? Exploring generally what some of the 'hot topics' are	Caroline Marrs (Director of the Center for Gender Justice) Kelly Bowden (Youth and Campus Outreach Officer) Caitlyn (Women's Rights) Molly (Group Develop)	???
12:00	LUNCH

1:00	How to engage someone on the street about Oxfam and it's issues (when tabling, running a flash event or petitioning) (talking)	Molly & Kelly
1:00	Making media work: VISUAL (poster) vs WRITTEN (op-ed)	Emma H Wyatt	logo guidelines
1:00	Group structures, team roles and organizing systems	Manjot, Andrew, Jasmine
3:00	BREAK
3:30	Where's GROW at? From financial institutions to food and beverage companies – the struggle for land rights – where it's come and where it's going. Update on campaign progress – next steps in taking action on land and food justice	GROW Team (Emma L, Emma H, Wyatt, Maggie)	BTB scorecard Land update Blog
5:00	HUNGER BANQUET		HB Guide
7:00	Fundraising Event Planning and Budgeting	Maggie :) Emma H	Fundraising Toolkit
	Member recruitment and retention	Wyatt, Molly
	Group Management and delegating work >> strengths based organizing	Jess, Manjot, Andrew
9:00	CLOSING MOMENT – team building	WEST SUPPORT (Emma H, Caitlyn, Manjot)

Friday, September 20, 2013

Time	Session	Facilitator(s)	STATUS
9:00	Stepping Stone two – Point of collective decision making around women's rights work through the school year. Potentially bring proposals forward of how we could focus work based on first conversation and test out what resonates with people. Discuss proposal for collective action, around the 16 days of action again VAW/GBV and the other themes highlighted within that time, or think creatively about how International Women's Day work could be brought to life. Reflect on proposals in different group configurations: all together, in regions, in campus groups, in mixed participant groups, etc	Caroline Marrs (Director of the Center for Gender Justice) Kelly Bowden (Youth and Campus Outreach Officer) Caitlyn (Women's Rights) Molly (Group Develop)
10:30	BREAK

11:00	Engendering Change How feminist organizing makes us stronger. Thinking about how to walk the talk on women's rights when running Oxfam activities.	Laura Haylock (Gender Equality Monitoring and Evaluation Officer) Jess Barry (Women's Rights)
12:30	LUNCH
1:30	GROW Week- planning for change Considering how campus groups can take action on Advocacy/Education/Fundraising throughout the campus year and at key moments.	Kelly Bowden (Youth and Campus Outreach Officer) Sarah Lyons (National Public Engagement Officer) Emma H (GROW) Emma L (GROW) Manjot (Group Develop)
3:30	BREAK and TRAVEL
4:15	Oxfam in Stories Take a tour of the Oxfam House in Ottawa and hear stories from different staff about the impacts of programs they've seen or the experiences they've had.	Central Support (Jess, Andrew, Wyatt, Molly)
5:15	Logistics for GJS review agenda	Kelly	GJS agenda
5:30	Dinner with the Oxfam Board of Directors
6:30	Break and TRAVEL
7:30	Spirit of Change Awards
11:00	Good night!

Saturday, September 21, 2013

Time	Session	Facilitator(s)	STATUS
3:00 -4:30	Closing and Reflect on how take-backs will happen; explore champions and post-CHANGE support network and resources	Group Development (Molly, Andrew, Manjot)
4:30	BREAK
7:00	Nuit Oxfam!

Sunday, September 22, 2013

Time	Session	Facilitator(s)	Location
------	---------	----------------	----------

2:00 -3:00	Evaluation	Kelly	